BESPOKE JOURNEYS

Our bespoke journeys are tailored by our team of regional specialists to match the exacting specifications and interests of our clients, from a family dive certification trip, to a cultural land excursion, to a conservation specialist trip, to bird watching in the outer islands.

These bespoke journeys are often challenging to organise, especially in remote areas, and may involve a chartered or private plane, a private speed boat, a helicopter, or travel with a specialist guide.

Such excursions and extra services cost outside of our trip inclusions listed above will be charged in the final invoice if made more than 90 days in advance, or in a separate invoice prior to the trip departure. Payment for these excursions and extra services is required prior to the trip departure and is non-refundable should the client cancel or reschedule the trip.

PROOF OF INSURANCE

Silolona Sojourns will send, upon request, proof of personal liability for up to USD 5,000,000.

PARTICIPANT RESPONSIBILITY

Trip members assume the responsibility to select/design a trip most appropriate to their physical abilities and interests. Members are responsible for being in sufficiently good health to undertake their trip and may be required to obtain a physician's release to participate in the trip.

Members are also responsible for studying all pre-departure information, bringing all detailed equipment and clothing, conforming to standards of personal hygiene to minimize the risk of traveler's disease as set up by the trip leader, and acting in a manner considerate of fellow group members and the countries visited.

Smoking is not permitted in buses, cars, below decks on our boats, tented camps, and other designated non-smoking areas.

AIRLINE RESPONSIBILITY

The airlines concerned are not to be held responsible for any act, omission, or event, during the time the passenger is not on board their planes or conveyances. The passenger contract in use by the airline concerned, when issued, shall constitute the sole contract between the airline and the purchaser of their programs and/or passengers. Similar responsibility as noted above applies to all types of carriers.

LIMITATION OF LIABILITY

Silolona Sojourns, its owners, agents, employees, and affiliated companies, hereby give notice that they act only as agents for hotels, transportation companies, land operators, and suppliers of travel services, and assume no responsibility or liability whatsoever in connection with the operation or service of any aircraft, motor vehicle or boat, other conveyance, inn, lodge, or hotel which may be used wholly or in part, for services to Silolona Sojourns trip members.

Silolona Sojourns, its operators, airlines, and agents will not be responsible for any act, error, or omission, nor for any injury, loss, accident, delay, inconvenience, irregularity, or damage which may be occasioned by any cause whatsoever, including acts of nature, civil disturbance, government restrictions, or failure of any means of conveyance to adhere to published schedules.

Silolona Sojourns reserves the right prior to departure, and after departure, to re-price, cancel, or withdraw any tour, trip, or expedition for any reason whatsoever, and to alter or omit any part of the itinerary, to substitute hotels or leaders, or to change any means of conveyance without notice and without allowance of refund with the liability for increased costs, in any, borne by the trip members.

If tours, treks, or expeditions are canceled due to acts of insurrection, strikes, acts of God, or any cause beyond the control of Silolona Sojourns; refunds will be based on the difference between the original trip price and the cost of services already provided. Silolona Sojourns reserves the right to accept or reject one as a trip member at any time.

The company is not responsible for: weather, sea, or road conditions affecting the cruise and causing delays or re-routing, sickness, government action, flight delays, and changes due to force majeure.

RISK AND RELEASE OF LIABILITY

Silolona Sojourns contracts with a network of business firms, governmental agencies, and individuals for field services. These businesses, firms, governmental agencies, and persons may include United States or foreign-based companies, subcontractors, business concerns, agents, employees, and associates (all of whom shall be referred to as “third parties”). In many instances, Silolona Sojourns is required to contract with particular third parties solely at the insistence of a foreign government or its agencies. To the best of Silolona Sojourns' knowledge, such third parties are qualified to perform the tasks for which they have been retained. Silolona Sojourns cannot fully supervise or guarantee the performance of such third parties because of, among other things, remote geographic locations, lack of Telecommunication facilities, time constraints, and governmental restrictions.

Therefore, contract signatories knowingly assume this risk and fully release and hold harmless Silolona Sojourns from any and all liabilities for all of the acts and omissions of all such third parties unless PT Silolona Sojourns has been shown to be reckless in its dealings with or reliance upon such third parties. The Complete Assumption of Risk of Travel and Release of Silolona Sojourns Liability shall be legally binding upon the signatory company's clients, all minors under the age of 21 traveling, their heirs, successors, assigns, and legal representatives; it being by intention to fully assume all the risk of travel and to release Silolona Sojourns from any and all liabilities to the maximum extent permitted by law. It is further agreed that Silolona Sojourns will be fully indemnified for all its costs, expenses, damages, etc. (including attorneys' fees), arising from or attributable to any claims or actions arising from guests' travel with Silolona Sojourns and which claims or actions are specifically released by the contract signatory company's clients by agreeing to these conditions and signing the contract liability release form and deliver to Silolona Sojourns.

The cost of all Silolona Sojourns trips has been based upon trip participants executing this Complete Assumption of Risk of Travel and Release of Silolona Sojourns Liability. The signatory's company has voluntarily agreed to sell and have guests participate in a PT Silolona Sojourns trip and willingly execute this document. It is understood that its contents and legal ramifications, especially those pertaining to the signatory company's full assumption of the risk of travel and the agreement to these conditions release Silolona Sojourns from any and all liability to the maximum extent permitted by law.

It is agreed that in the unlikely event that a dispute of any kind arises between the signatory's company and Silolona Sojourns, the following conditions will apply, the maximum amount of recovery to which the company will be entitled under any and all circumstances will be the sum of the trip and air cost of the booked trip with Silolona Sojourns.

It is agreed that in the event any part or portion of this trip member's agreement regarding Complete Assumption of Risk of Travel and Release of Silolona Sojourns is found to be void or unenforceable, then such part or portion will be stricken but the rest of the agreement will be given full force and effect. Booking conditions are agreed upon by signature of an official Silolona Sojourns charter agreement.

SPECIAL CONDITIONS / ADDENDUM

Should a CDC Travel Health Notice of level 3 or higher for any country to or from the charter destination be issued, or flights be canceled due to health alerts, a rescheduling of charter dates shall be agreed. The Rescheduling Addendum must be signed within 14 days of the notification of intent to reschedule and new allowable dates must be within one year of the initial charter date. Should the vessel be sold or disabled after the reschedule is in effect, the original Charter Agreement will be considered null, and all funds will be returned by all parties.
